Professional Summary

Masters in History

Specialization in Medieval Indian history

- ❖ Took attendance, graded assignments and maintained student records to assist them and maintain smooth daily operations.
- ❖ Built strong rapport with students through class discussion.
- ❖ Helped struggling students by providing support outside of classrooms and consistently checking in on progress.
- ❖ Applied innovative teaching methods to encourage student learning objectives.
- ❖ Created materials and exercises to illustrate application of course concepts.

My ultimate goal of teaching is to promote learning. My task, as a teacher, is to create an atmosphere that fosters learning. I am teacher because I have a passion for guiding my students through the learning process. In addition to the passion for the material I present, I tend to encourage learning by creating a relaxed environment for students. Trying to stimulate conversations about concepts being presented and organizing material and equipment in a way that appeals to the learners and makes it easiest to understand.
